MRS, A. E. THORPE, PROPRIETRESS of the Rex Moving Picture Theatre, regrets to announce to her patrons that, due to a small fire, the Rex will be closed during the next two or three days, while the slight damage is being repaired. The fire, which originated in and was confined strictly to the operating room, was due to an unaveldable accident. At no time during the slight conflagration were any of the patrons in the house, which was crowded at the time, in any danger. All the automatic safety fire appliances worked perfectly, and the wide sistes and numerous exits of the Rex afforded ample time for the house to be emptied before the audience knew that there actually was a fire in the building. there a building.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lynchburg, Va., March 17.-While a hundred pupils were at work in the new high school at Concord, fourteen miles east of Lynchburg, the building was totally destroyed by fire yester-

The entire number escaped from the structure without injury.

The fire caught in the roof, which was burning furiously when discovered. A bucket brigade proved unavailing in an effort to save the school, The school was only occupied at the first of the year, and it cost $15,000, most of which came from popular subscriptions. The loss is three-fourths insured. Steps have already been taken by the patrons to assist the school authorities to rebuild.

Smith Will Recover. News from Charles H. Smith, of Sanford, who was wounded in the attempt that was made on his life and that of Duncan E. McIver in Union Depot here last evening by H. H. Powell, who took his own life as a climax for his insane escapade, is that there is no probability of any very serious effects, and that he will be out again within a week or two.

Preparations are being made for the funeral of Powell to-morrow as soon as his son, II, II. Powell, Jr., of Johnson City, Tenn., can reach here. Mrs Powell, widow of the unfortunate man and John Powell, a son, came in this morning from Sauford, and are arranging for the burial in the family burying ground near Raleigh. Powell was a native of this county, and farmed near Raieigh for many years, after his four years' service in the Civil War. Then he located in Aber deen, and later in Sanford, running Remarkable Christmas Present.

Among the curious Christmas presents of this year will be one for a man of national reputation, which has been

Way last January the present was decided upon, and a friend of the prominent gentleman requested the Burrelle Press Clipping Bureau, of New York, to watch every paper in America and to take up every item which appeared concerning the man.

The clipping bureau people followed instructions, and now present the history of one year in the life of this especial man. The history ends just after election, and the 23,643 newspaper items found include everything from a three-line editorial mention to full-page illustrated stories. These have been mounted on 3,200 great sheets of Irish linen paper and bound into three massiva At the head of each item is the name and date of paper clipped from, this information having been put in with a book typewriter. The words thus in-serted amount to 153,852. In actual time, a very strict record of which has been kept, the work has required sixty-four working days employment during that time thirty people, as readers, clippers, sorters, mounters and binders. Every newspaper of importance is represented.

This is merely a specimen of some of the unique orders which get into the Burrelle Bureau, for the extent to which clippings are used by individuals and by business concerns seems to be remarkable.

There are many people in private as well as in public life who need press elippings and don't know it. It might be well for them to look up this man Burrelle, who is said to be so well known that a letter simply addressed Burrelle, New York," will reach him
